Born in Latvia in 1945, Miss Lielmane was a student of the Riga Conservatory, and for three years studied with the great Russian violinist, Oistrakh. She went on to win the International Gold Medal at Belgrade and returned to Riga to teach a violin class there.

Although Miss Lielmane has concertized throughout Europe and Mexico, where she has presently been performing, her only previous North American appearance was at Expo'67, Montreal, when she represented her native Latvia.
